HENDERSON LIFE OF CRIME

Second Thursday of Each Month
Henderson Municipal Court

Henderson Life of Crime

The Henderson Life of Crime is an educational program designed to reach youth, young adults and their parents. Conflict between parents and teens can be challenging and stressful – the Life of Crime program provides life-changing information and is a valuable experience for parents, their teenagers and young adults, even in the absence of discord. This program is conducted in a courtroom at the Henderson Municipal Court located at 243 South Water Street on the northeast corner of Water and Basic Streets.

Presented By:

Chief Judge Diana Hampton of the Henderson Municipal Court, Police Chief Jutta Chambers of the Henderson Police Department, City of Henderson Marshall Services of the Henderson Detention Center, in association with Partnerships for Youth at Risk.

Time: 6 PM Sharp to 8:00 PM

Everyone is to be seated at 5:50 PM Sharp

Location: Henderson Municipal Court - 243 S. Water St., Henderson, NV 89015

Day: Second Thursday of each month

- Dark July & December
- November Class will be the second Tuesday of that month

Life of Crime Part I:

A presentation on street crime and the detrimental affect it has on individuals and the community is conducted by a variety of agencies. If availability allows, S.W.A.T., K-9, Criminal Apprehension Team, Repeat Offender Program and other special guests will speak on behalf of their division following a story line of two youths who made a choice that starts a negative domino effect. Each presentation will be followed by a question and answer session.

Life of Crime Part II:

Inmates from the Henderson Detention Center who have been involved in criminal activity most of their lives will share their life stories and the impact their choices have had on families, friends, themselves and the community at large. It will conclude with a question and answer session.
